The Military Company.

The signers to the pledge to become members of a military company in this village met Thursday night at the Town Hall to the number of about fifty, and proceeded to take the preliminary steps to organization by electing the commis-sioned officers of the company with the following result:

Captain—A. G. Boggs. First Lieut.—E. D. Sutherland. Second Lieut.—H. J. Miner.

Captain Boggs well deserves the honor of being elected captain, as he was the leading spirit in getting the company up. Messrs. Sutherland and Miner are both experienced in the drill and will make efficient officers, and ably support Captain Boggs in his efforts to secure proficiency in evolutions and manual of arms in the rank and file. The non-commissioned officers will be elected at a future meeting. Seventy-six names have been secured and a number of others will join, so that the requisite number is virtually sure.

The 3rd regiment, of which this company propose to become a part, we learn from Governor Jerome's message has now six companies, distributed as follows: Flint, Alpena, Bay City, Saginaw, East Saginaw and Port Huron. An application for admission as a company into this regiment has already been forwarded to the State Military board, which meets the 27th and 28th of this month, and we think there is no question but that the application will be granted. The success of the company depends largely upon the interest the members take i I Land from the character of those composing the company, it is very eviden: it will be an honor to Cheboygan.

M chinaw City.

the didications are that our neighbors at the terminus of the railroad are to enjoy a gen one "boom" the coming sea son. Already numerous buildings are projected, and the erection of some commenced. The Presbyterians are putting up a church, and several stores and dwellings are springing up. They have one of the best docks on the chain of lakes, the railroad dock. The Michigan Central company opened its new depot this week. The building is of wood, 290 feet long, two stories high, cost $25,000, and has all the modern improvements. including spacious lunch and dining rooms on the first floor, and 20 apartments upstairs for the accommodation of the traveling public. A. Maxwell, of Grayling, is to run the hotel. The G. R. & L road will also occupy the building in a few days, making it a union depot. Possessed of two good hotels, the Mercier House and Stimpson House, it bids fair to become one of the popular summer resorts of Northern Michigan, as already the hotels have become quite popular with the traveling public. We are glad to note the flourishing condition and favorable prospects of our neighbors, and hope that their glowing anticipations for the future may be more than fulfilled.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

The report of the Grand Master at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. at Flint shows the order to be in a very flourishing condition, and having a steady growth. His report showing 18 subordinate and 14 Rebecca lodges instituted during the year in this state, making a total of 374 subordinate lodges and 52 Rebecca lodges now in existence in Michigan. The reports of other officers show an unprecedented degree of prosperity throughout the state.

The following officers were elected-for the ensuing year, and were installed etc., etc., etc. Thursday:

Grand Master-Harrison Soule, of Ann Deputy Grand Master-L. N. Burke, of

Grand Warden-B. F. Rounds, of Benton Harbor. Grand Secretary - E. H. Whitney, of Lansing. Grand Treasurer—B. D. Pritchard, of Allegan.

Representative to Sovereign Grand Lodge—G. Westman, of Adrian. There were 373 lodges represented by delegates, and the visitors numbered several hundred. If you want good pictures go to Wixson's gallery. SPALDING'S ECONOMY.

A Michigan Congressman's Bill to Save Public Funds.

Correspondence Detroit Evening News.

WASHINGTON Feb. 19.—Gen. Spalding. a representative from Michigan, who has been a federal secret service agent, and auditor of the state of Michigan, and who is familiar with all the machinery for the collection of the customs revenues, has, after consultation with the secretary of the treasury and other officers of that department, introduced a bill to consolidate the custom collection districts, abolish custom house fees, and grade the customs districts etc. The bill reduces the customs districts in the United States from 140 to 67. The section Correspondence Detroit Evening News

ABOLISHING CUSTOM HOUSE FEES reads: "All laws and parts of laws authorizing the collection of custom house fees, or the allowance of commissions or storage to collectors and surveyors of customs are hereby rupealed, and no charge shall be made hereafter for the services of custom officers in passing entries, administering oaths, entering and clearing vessels, issuing enrollments, licenses and registers of vessels, or any other service required to be perments, licenses and registers of vessels, or any other service required to be performed in the execution of the customs and navigation laws." The law provides that the districts shall be graded into five classes according to the business transacted; first collectors shall receive $5,000 annual salary; second class $4,000; third class $2,000; fourth class $2,500; fifth class $2,000. The local appraiser at New York to receive $8,000 per annum. According to estimates furnished by the secretary of the treas, ury

wry $494,295.02 will be saved by this consolidation of districts. The number of employes in the custom collection service in 1882 were 4,255, the cost of the service $6,549,595 07. Number of employes for next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1884, under existing law, 4,262; estimated cost of service for year ending June 30, 1884, under existing law, $6,639,650 02; estimated number of employes for the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1884, if Spalding's law goes into effect, 4,032, a reduction of 209; estimated expenses same period under Spalding law, $6,145,355. The greatest relief of Spalding's bill is the removal of the petty charges and annoyances now levied on the shipping interest. The bill will materially reduce the conpensation of customs collectors and will protect importers from many petty est. The bill will materially reduce the compensation of customs collectors and will protect importers from many petty robberies by principal and minor customs officials. The secretary of the treasury in his estimates under the proposed consolidation, does not comply with Spalding's bill, which gives the first class collectors only $5,000 yearly salary. He recommends that the collector at New York shall get $12,000; Boston, $8,000; Philadelphia, $8,000; San Francisco, $7,000; New Orleans and Baltimore, $6,000; Portland, Me., Burlington, Vt., Buffalo, Chicago and St. Louis, $5,000; Providence, R. I., Oswego, N. Y., Suspension Bridge, N. Y., Pittsburg, Pa., Charleston, S. C., Savannah, Ga., Key West, Fla., Brownsville, Tex., Galveston, Tex., Cincinnati, O., Detroit, Mich., and Portland, Ore., $4,000. This classification of Secretary Folger, which is based on the amount of the business done in each district, gives a good idea of done in each district, gives a good idea THE COMMERCIAL IMPORTANCE of the several ports so far as importations and marine service with foreign ports are concerned. The salaries of the collectors of the other lake ports unthe collectors of the other lake ports under this estimate are as follows: Ogdensburg, Rochester, Cleveland, Port Huron and Milwaukee $3,000 each; Cape Vincent, Erie, Toledo, Grand Haven and Marquette $2,000 each. The following lake ports will be abolished by this bill: Dunkirk, Sandusky, Duluth and Portsmouth. Dunkirk goes into the Buffalo district, Sandusky into the Toledo district, Duluth into the St. Paul district and Portsmouth into the Cleveland district, the name of the Cuyahoga district and Portsmouth into the Cleveland dis-trict, the name of the Cuyahoga district is changed to Cleveland, and Maumee to Toledo. Gen. Spalding's bill has been accepted by the appropriation commit-tee of the House and its main features will be incorporated in the sundry civil appropriation. The classification of the various districts and the salaries of the collectors will probably be somewhat collectors will probably be somewhat changed so as to comply with the recom-mendations of Secretary Folger.

A TERRIBLE TALE

A Man's Head Cut off With an Ax -The Murderer Lynched -Subsequent Riot and Seyen Men Killed. Special Dispatch to the Post and Tribune

This morning felt kind of spring like, but no robins have put in an appearance. However it brought the boys out with their marbles.

Mr. Grover, carrisge maker for W. C. Hayes, died this morning at the Tremont House, after an illness of a few days. It e was at work last Tuesday.

The year 1883 seems to be marked as a year of dire and distressing calamities. Fires, storms, floods and railroad disasters have caused an immense loss of life and entailed great suffering. The most recent occurred in New York city, where an alarm of fire in a Catholic school building, containing over 700 scholars, mostly children between the ages of 6 and 11 years, created a panic, and during the rush for the street a balustrade gave way, precipitating a confused mass of children to the floor beneath, resulting in the death of 16 children between the ages of 7 and 12. The scenes after the panic are described as heartrending in the extreme.

Asseven Men Killed.

Special Dispatch to the Post and Tribune,

EAST TAWAS, February 22—We are informed by a teamster that an argument arose between two teamsters at one of Brown's camps regarding who hauled the heaviest load of logs, one having 2, 900 feet of logs, the other 2,700, which resulted in favor of the smaller load; and at night after most of the men had retired, the victor was seated beside the stove, his head bowed down, when the other came in and with one blow of ax completely severed his head from his body. While the head laid upon the dioxed once or twice. The cry of murder was given and 60 men hurriedly arose from bed, saw the fearful deed, and without further ceremony took a log chain and hung the murderer to the first tree and will not allow him taken down until the arrival of the sheriff. I am unable to learn the names of either. It is reported to day on the street that an attempt of men from an adjoining camp to cut the body down resulted in a riot and seven men were killed. Mr. Brown left for the camp yesterday or early this morning. The camp jesterday or early this morning. T
